PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Business students are invited to participate in a Study Abroad program to China.

This study tour will include;

- Insights into Chinese culture and how to conduct business;
- Industry visits to multinational retailers, including Alibaba; and
- Visits to Shanghai and Beijing, the world's first and second most populous cities!

China is a key trade and investment partner of Australia and this partnership will continue to contribute significantly to our economy. This teacher-led study tour will take students to TAFE Queensland's partner colleges in China to gain first hand insights into international business practices and to expand their entrepreneurial skills.

This tour will highlight the importance of culture when conducting business internationally. This Study Abroad experience will stay with students long after their study tour.
