Develop your basic English skills

This English program is designed for people on temporary visas who are not on student visas and who do not qualify for government assisted programs such as the Adult English Migrant Program (AMEP). This program is run by qualified English Language teachers in an accredited institution. Lessons are delivered in a supportive and fun environment, with class sizes kept to a maximum of 18, to ensure a personalised approach. At an advanced level, you may be prepared for the International English Language Testing Program (IELTS) test which is a requirement for some people.

In this General English Program you can choose the amount of study you wish to complete. Below are the 4 options for enrolment. When you have decided on which option meets your needs, you can negotiate when you will attend classes. When you have finished your course, you can enrol in another course, depending on your visa restrictions. When you finish study, you can apply to the teacher for a Statement of Attendance that lists how many hours you have completed.
