This course is currently in 'teach out' and we are working with the Regulator, Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA) to deliver the replacement qualification. When a qualification goes into a 'teach out' mode, it means that the Program of Study is about to be superseded or discontinued. This is a clear indication that industry needs have changed and the previous qualification is no longer the most suitable. At TAFE Queensland, we pride ourselves with delivering the most up-to-date Programs of Study that meets real work life opportunities.

Flexible training options

TAFE Queensland offers a variety of training options to suit you and your business. Contact us to discuss your unique training needs and find out how we can tailor our training to best suit your business.

Workplace

Students are trained and assessed by our workplace training officers in their own workplace.

Drop-in days

Students can drop in to a TAFE Queensland facility at any time to train with a teacher without needing to schedule it in advance.

Block training

Training is delivered in study blocks of one to six weeks at one of our state-of-the-art training facilities.

Mobile van

We bring the tools and equipment to you in our mobile training van.

Day release

Training is scheduled one day a week at one of TAFE Queensland's training facilities.

Mixed mode

Combine on-campus learning with online elements, some blocks, some day release, or anything in between.

Online

Studying online also lets you have more control of your learning by allowing you to better manage your workload and set your own deadlines than traditional study.
