

Apprentice Awards 2022

Conditions of Entry

By entering the TAFE Queensland – SkillsTech Apprentice Awards, you agree to abide by the following conditions of entry:

All nominations must be submitted online via the dedicated online nomination platform during the nomination period.

Nominations close at midnight (Queensland time) on the closing date. TAFE Queensland – SkillsTech reserves the right to extend the deadline for applications at their sole discretion.

Each awards category has specific criteria. For an entry to be valid, all criteria must be addressed.

TAFE Queensland – SkillsTech reserves the right to re-assign applications lodged to incorrect categories at its discretion.

To be eligible, students must have been active in their apprenticeship between 1 July 2021 to 30 June 2022 and at any stage of their apprenticeship with the exception of the Outstanding Apprentice of the Year, who must be in the final year.

Applications will be judged against the specified criteria in each award category by a panel of judges from TAFE Queensland. Decisions of the judging panel are final.

All nominees will be advised in writing of the outcome of their nomination.

Shortlisted nominees must be available for telephone or online interviews in September 2022 as part of the judging process.

Finalists should make themselves available to attend the Apprentice Awards presentation.

Finalists and winners of the TAFE Queensland – SkillsTech Apprentice Awards may be required to participate in media interviews, promotional events and activities.
